

ESNNA CODE

The Ministry of Foreign Trade and Tourism of Peru has expressed its commitment to combating the sexual exploitation of children and adolescents through the implementation of the Code of Conduct against ESNNA. This essential initiative of the Ministry aims to raise awareness and train all stakeholders involved in the Peruvian tourism sector with the purpose of preventing and eliminating the sexual exploitation of minors (under 18 years of age).

CODE OF CONDUCT AGAINST ESNNA AND OUR COMMITMENT

At LMP TRAVEL, we undertake to promote and carry out a series of joint actions to prevent and eliminate the problem of Sexual Exploitation of Children and Adolescents in the provision of our services. We do this in collaboration with all members of our team (stakeholders) throughout our value chain.

ESNNA CERTIFICATE

Measures Adopted by LMP TRAVEL Against ESNNA

Through our commitment to adhere to the Code of Conduct to combat Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children and Adolescents (ESNNA), we commit to continuously carry out a series of actions, including:

We promote awareness and training of all members of our team, including administrative, operational, and sales staff, among others, in order to contribute to the eradication of ESNNA. In accordance with our values and legal requirements, none of our team members offer or participate in activities related to various forms of sexual commerce, such as:

In the case of travel agencies and tour operators, such as LMP TRAVEL, we commit to this commitment by signing the Code of Conduct against ESNNA before GERCETUR. We commit to complying with the principles and responsibilities established in this document, as well as adhering to the General Tourism Law and its regulations related to the prevention of ESNNA.

THE USE OF CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENTS IN PORNOGRAPHIC ACTIVITIES.

Sex tourism.

Trafficking of children and adolescents for commercial sexual exploitation purposes.

Similarly, we promote awareness and training of all our stakeholders, including guides, cooks, drivers, support staff (porters), muleteers, community rural tourism projects, hotels, hostels, restaurants (as well as their corresponding staff), and other stakeholders. Our goal is to contribute to the eradication of ESNNA. In accordance with our values and legal responsibilities, none of these stakeholders offer or participate in activities related to various forms of sexual commerce, such as:

The use of children and adolescents in pornographic activities.

Sex tourism.

Trafficking of children and adolescents for commercial sexual exploitation purposes.

We sign the Code of Conduct for Suppliers of LMP TRAVEL, through which all stakeholders and various activities throughout the value chain in our operations commit to following the five commitments established in the document. We also commit to reporting cases of ESNNA to the relevant authorities as necessary.

As an additional aspect of our commitment to our Corporate Social Responsibility Policy, LMP TRAVEL promotes the well-being of children in our region and country indirectly by generating income for families in the destinations where we carry out our tourism activities.

Likewise, we provide support to children on special occasions such as Christmas, Children's Day, among other festivities.
